Arthur Winston Passed Away Thursday Evening Following a Short Illness

Arthur Winston, Metro's loved and respected elder, died at his home, Thursday evening, at age 100. Family members were at his bedside and reported that he died in his sleep about 8 p.m. Although Winston had been hospitalized for two weeks, he had been recuperating at home since April 6. Funeral arrangements are pending. Arthur Winston was a legend, a true inspiration, dedicated to his work and loyal to this agency.
