

Metro

Daily Brief

Tuesday May 2, 2006

20060502-0

CEO Roger Snoble

In this issue:

- Go Metro To Rose Bowl Soccer Match May 5
- Heavy Ridership On Metro Red And Blue Lines

Go Metro To Rose Bowl Soccer Match May 5

Media Relations issued a news release today encouraging patrons to use the Metro Gold Line to see the Mexico versus Venezuela soccer match at the Rose Bowl on May 5. Patrons can exit at the Memorial Park Station and ride a free shuttle bus – with funds provided by Metro Board Member and LA County Supervisor Michael D. Antonovich – to the Rose Bowl. Metro will add extra trains to accommodate increased ridership.

Link to News Release: http://www.metro.net/news_info/press/metro_065.htm

Heavy Ridership On Metro Red And Blue Lines

The Los Angeles Times and KPCC radio inquired today regarding ridership estimates from yesterday's May 1 Boycott March. Staff reported that ridership was heavy on both the Metro Blue Line and the Metro Red Line however no estimates on how many people used the system were immediately available.

Metro.net Home | Press Room | Projects & Programs | Meeting Agendas | Riding Metro | Metro Library

Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority
1 Gateway Plaza
Los Angeles, California 90012-2952
Phone: 213-922-6888
Fax: 213-922-7447
