Competent guides will conduct visitors through the Union Station. Be sure to attend during the Celebration. This is the only time such tours will be conducted, as the station will go into regular operation at one minute after midnight Sunday morning, May 7.

You are cordially invited to visit all of the new public buildings in the Civic Center, which will hold Open House during the celebration, also historic buildings—the Baker Block and the old Plaza Church, Olvera Street and the colorful international tourist district around the Station. Chinatown, the cafes of the Italian and French quarters and Little Tokio will join in the fiesta welcoming the Union Station.
