

NEWS

MEDIA ADVISORY

December 2, 1994

KIDS, MOMS AND DADS TO PAINT HUGE MURAL FOR VERMONT AVENUE'S METRO RED LINE CONSTRUCTION FENCE

- WHAT: Kids, moms dads -- the whole family -- will contribute their artistic talents this Sunday to create a giant mural for the MTA Metro Red Line construction fence on Vermont Avenue near Sunset Boulevard. Artist Gayle Gale will direct the budding artists at the Barnsdall Park Junior Art Center. Each family has the opportunity to paint a 4' by 8' mural panel for the fence.
- WHEN: Sunday, December 4, 1994
11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.
- WHERE: Barnsdall Park Junior Art Center
Entrance: Metro Rail construction site, opposite intersection of Berendo Street and Hollywood Boulevard between Vermont Avenue and Edgemont Street.
(1994 Thomas Bros. Guide page 594, block A-4)
- ATTENDEES: Artist Gayle Gale
Harriet Miller, Executive Director, Art Center
Andre Parvenu, MTA Public Affairs Officer
- VISUALS: Kids and family members wielding paint brushes to create colorful artwork for the mural.
- CONTACT: Bill Heard, MTA Media Relations (213) 244-7047
Media Relations Number: (213) 244-6347
After Hours: (213) 972-6111

# #

MTA-307
mural.adv
BH:rp:12.02.94