

NEWS

PHOTO OPPORTUNITY

October 20, 1994

MTA, METROLINK DONATE RAIL ARTIFACTS TO LOCAL MUSEUMS AS PASADENA BLUE LINE PROGRESSES

- WHAT: Rails and old signaling equipment are being removed from the former Santa Fe right-of-way to make way for construction of the Pasadena Blue Line. Equipment no longer serviceable but of historical value will be donated to local museums and institutions for preservation and display.
- WHEN: Tuesday, October 25, 1994
10 a.m.
- WHERE: Old Amtrak Station
Corner of Del Mar Boulevard and Raymond Avenue
Pasadena
- PARTICIPANTS: Laurence Weldon, project manager, Pasadena Blue Line
Acquiring Institutions -- Pasadena Historical Museum, Pasadena Heritage Museum, City of South Pasadena Heritage Museum, South Pasadena Chamber of Commerce, Travel Town Museum, Heritage Square, Orange Empire Railway Museum
- VISUALS: Rail artifacts being donated; displays and information from area museums.
- CONTACT: Steve Chesser, MTA Press Relations: (213) 244-7056
MTA Press Relations Number: (213) 244-6347

#

MTA-272
photo.adv
SC:rp:10.20.94