MTA, COUNCILWOMAN JACKIE GOLDBERG TO JOIN LOCAL GROUPS AT MURAL DEDICATION NEAR RED LINE CONSTRUCTION

EVENT: The MTA, Los Angeles Neighborhood Initiative, Virgil Village, Council Member Jackie Goldberg, and Sunset Junction Neighborhood Alliance will jointly dedicate a completed Red Line construction mural. "The Precious Sea," painted by Annie Sperling, is 20-feet high by 100-feet long, and depicts a variety of underwater life. The mural, created on the outside wall of a market, is the first of four to be painted.

WHEN: FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1996
4 P.M.

WHERE: Laguna Seafood Ranch Market #2
720 North Vermont Avenue
Los Angeles

PURPOSE: To improve appearance of neighborhood, and establish harmonious working relationships among local groups, youth and business.

CONTACT: GARY WOSK/JIM SMART, MTA Media Relations
(213) 922-2712/922-2700.

Note: A second mural is scheduled to be painted on Busy Bee Market, 825 North Virgil, Los Angeles. A meeting will be held at the Cahuenga Library, 4591 Santa Monica Blvd., Nov. 20, 6 p.m., to discuss this mural.
