LA PUENTE RESIDENT HONORED AS MTA'S BUS OPERATOR OF THE MONTH FOR APRIL

Felipe Perez, a resident of La Puente who has been with the MTA for over 12 years, was honored as the MTA's Bus Operator of the Month for April.

Perez has maintained excellent accident, attendance, and safety records. His performance reflects zero avoidable accidents, absences, minor rule infractions.

"Operator Perez demonstrates the dedication to responsibility that we at the MTA are proud to recognize amongst our employees," said James P. Reichert, MTA's interim executive officer for transit operations. "His position demands that he drive any route in his division. He is a capable operator and an asset to the MTA."

Perez operates out of Division 18 located in the South Bay. His working motto is "Treat others as you want to be treated".

"I look forward to coming to work knowing that I will have the opportunity to help others," Perez says.

Perez and his wife, Elizabeth, have four children. They enjoy outdoor sports such as fishing, soft-ball, and soccer.
