“I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character.”

-Martin Luther King, Jr., Civil Rights Activist
Born: January 15, 1929

“We should emphasize not Negro History, but the Negro in history. What we need is not a history of selected races or nations, but the history of the world void of national bias, race hate, and religious prejudice.”

-Carter Woodson, “Father of Black History”
Born: December 19, 1875

“For Africa to me... is more than a glamorous fact. It is a historical truth. No man can know where he is going unless he knows exactly where he has been and exactly how he arrived at his present place.”

-Maya Angelou, Poet
Born: April 4, 1928

“I am the greatest, I said that even before I knew I was.”

-Cassius “Muhammad Ali” Clay, Jr., Boxer
Born: January 17, 1942

“Success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life as by the obstacles which he has overcome while trying to succeed”

-Booker T. Washington, Political Leader
Born: April 4, 1856
