JANUARY, 1954

No. 3

Dear Passenger:

HELP ME make your
New Year
HAPPIER in 1954!

Please:

1. Have exact fare ready.
2. Tell me whether you want tokens or change.
3. Tell me whether you want a transfer.
4. Tell me your destination.
5. Move to the rear of the coach if no seats are available.
6. Pull the buzzer cord for your stop in plenty of time.

Thanks a lot! — Your friend,

METRO PETE

Give Some Boy A Break

National Big Brother Week, Jan. 10-17, is a time when adult men of America are asked to consider working with the Catholic or the Jewish Big Brothers societies to prevent juvenile delinquency.

Ask the Community Chest at MI. 8821 for details.

OF JUDGMENT

We be all frail: but thou shalt judge no man more frail than thyself.—Thomas a Kempis.

WE'RE PROUD OF:

ROSS R. SHAPPELL
Operator 1161
Los Angeles-Riverside Line

His courtesy, dependability, and fine safety record make Mr. Shappell an outstanding representative of Metropolitan Coach Lines, in the opinion of Chief Supervisor T. L. Halverson.

"It's enjoyable work serving the public," says Shappell, "because most people are friendly and cooperative."

Happily married, Ross and his wife Betty, with their two sons, John, 10, and Tony, 12, have been residents of Riverside for the past five years.

Have You Heard This One?

It is only at the race track that you will find windows that clean people.

Don't ever question your wife's judgment. Look whom she married.

School children were having a holiday because of a teacher's institute. Seven-year-old Jimmy announced it this way:

"No school tomorrow. The teachers are going on an innocent toot."
