

Joe Loomis is Facilities Maintenance Employee of Month

Joe Loomis, painter leader at the South Park facility, was named Facilities Maintenance Department (FMD) Employee of the Month for December 2001.

^ Joe Loomis

Facilities Maintenance Supervisor Dave Ulmer nominated Loomis for his excellent attitude, his high level of initiative and for his ability to plan and organize his crew's work with little supervision. Ulmer described Loomis as a strong leader who projects self-confidence and enthusiasm. His positive attitude inspires the cooperation and confidence of his crew.

The award was presented to Loomis, last month, during a small ceremony at South Park. Denise Longley, deputy executive officer, Strategic Development of Facilities – Operations, acknowledged Loomis' accomplishments, along with his peers, supervisor and manager. FMD Director Don Ott made the presentation.

The FMD developed the Employee of the Month program to formally recognize exceptional employees among the nearly 400 personnel in the department.

Back to Bulletin Board