
Chamber Award Recipient: Lonnie Mitchell, the MTA's Procurement executive officer, was honored, last week, as a recipient of the Purchasing Manager Award from the Greater Los Angeles African American Chamber of Commerce. The award was presented at the organization's ninth annual Economics Awards dinner. The awards are presented to individuals who have contributed to the economic growth and development of the African American community. Mitchell, who joined the MTA in June 2000, is responsible for the agency's procurement activities. A former Navy Supply Corps officer, he holds a B.A. in economics from Washington State University and an M.S. in management from the Naval Postgraduate School. (3/26/02)
