

Library to Host 'ID the Photo' Open House on Wednesday, April 2, from 2 to 4 p.m.

(March 26, 2003) The Dorothy Peyton Gray Library and Archive will conduct an "ID the Photo" open house on Wednesday, April 2, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. The Library is located on the 15th floor of MTA Headquarters.

Many photographs donated to the Library have no identification or information associated with the people, places, events, and equipment depicted.

In this, the second in a series of "ID the Photo," Librarian Matt Barrett is asking current and retired employees to help the Library "fill in the blanks" in preparation for a future digital archive, as well as for future photo exhibits in the library.

Barrett encourages employees to stop by the open house to enjoy refreshments, check out the reconfigured library space and help with photo identification.

Additional "ID the Photo" events will be scheduled in the Library and at other MTA locations in the near future.

More than 50 photos were fully captioned by employees who helped identify photos for the MTA Library Archives at first open house held December.
