

Meals for the Homeless

Intern Briana Wright (left), volunteer Max Morallo and Metro Bus Operator Shinese Harlins of North Los Angeles Division 3 spent part of the New Year's weekend working with the Carson Kiwanis Club preparing meals for the homeless. "Helping someone who is less fortunate than I am makes me realize that what I have is a blessing," said Harlins. Wright agreed, saying, "Giving to others is something special to me." Max Morallo, 15, is the son of Rich Morallo, South Bay communications manager.
