Division 10 Transportation: 79 Days and No Lost-Time Accident

(Oct. 26, 2004) It's 79 days and counting for Gateway Division 10 Transportation – almost four months without a lost-time accident.

Transportation also has been able to reduce CalOSHA recordable accidents by 70 percent, from 135 cases in FY 2003 to only 41 cases in FY 2004.

And, to date this fiscal year, the division has seen a 22 percent decrease in recordable cases. There's also been a reduction in Workers' Compensation claims.

"This is a great improvement in safety," said Westside/Central General Manager David Armijo. "These are the dividends we reap from the collective efforts of our bus operators and the management team at the division. Fewer lost work days also result in better service for our customers."
