A Pin for 5: CEO Roger Snoble Reaches 5 Years' Service

(October 26, 2006) Board Chair Gloria Molina surprised CEO Roger Snoble at Thursday's Board meeting by presenting him with his 5-year Metro service pin. "That's for outstanding service," Molina said as she attached the pin to his lapel. She noted that, 10 years after the creation of the agency, Snoble is the first CEO to reach the five-year mark. The Board signed a two-year contract with Snoble, Sept. 28, and he began his sixth year of service on Oct. 1. He was hired as Metro's chief executive officer in 2001, succeeding Julian Burke.
