Rally, Concert at City Hall launches 'Bike to Work Week'

Text and photos by Ned Racine

The Bike to Work Week Kick-Off Rally drew many bicycle riders to the South Lawn of Los Angeles City Hall. The event included a Health and Bike Fair and a welcoming by Councilmember Tom LaBonge. Metro was a co-sponsor of the event. An estimated 200 people visited the Metro booth, said event coordinator Paula Carvajal-Paez.

Los Angeles City Councilmember Wendy Greuel tells the Kick-Off Rally crowd that "The only way to solve the traffic in Los Angeles is to find alternative ways" to travel in the city. Greuel told attendees her son rides his tricycle on the Metro Orange Line bike path.

Jennifer Salamanca, event planning and promotions coordinator; Paula Carvajal-Paez, transportation planning manager, and Fran Curbello, communications manager, stuff Bike to Work bags for those attending Monday's "Bike to Work Week" kickoff and rally.
