Blue Liners Sing About Blue Mondays

By NED RACINE, Editor

(May 29, 2008) Under a warm sun the Blue Liners, a band composed of Metro employees, laid down some cool tunes during a lunchtime concert.

The Blue Liners played an extensive repertoire, the early Rock and Roll of "YaYa" to bossa nova, with "Girl From Ipanema." And then there was Marie Tervalon singing "Blue Monday" on the Plaza Patio West.

The Blue Liners are: Mike Ortiz, lead guitar; Larry Morris, keyboard; Carl Hobson, congas; Raul Gomez, drums; Joe Parise, guitar; Paul Burke, sax; Augustine Zuniga, guitar; and Marie Tervalon, lead vocals.

Not only do the Blue Liners help move people during the day, they move people with their music.
