Accounting Zombies, Witches and Devils Move Oct. 31 into the Scary Column

(Nov. 6, 2008) Twenty employees participated in the frightening costume contest and 11 competed in the cubicle decoration contest. This was the first time Accounting had held either. -- From Ned Racine Edina Pagadora (left), accounting supervisor, won 1st Place in the Accounting department's Halloween costume competition on Friday, October 31. Meline Nazarbegian, accounting manager, was one of the competition's judges. Beside her is Jo Ann Bartolome, senior accountant, and the leader of the team that organized the frightening costume competition.

image specialist; Angelica Aceves, document image specialist; and Luz García, accounting assistant. Jessica Smith, accounting assistant, was chasing goblins and unavailable for photographs.
