

NEWS

MEDIA ADVISORY

December 9, 1994

SANTA CLAUS ARRIVES IN HOLLYWOOD VIA ANTIQUE TROLLEY TO KICK OFF SPECIAL MTA HOLIDAY PROGRAMS IN RED LINE CONSTRUCTION AREA

- WHAT: Santa Claus will board a motorized antique trolley at the L. Ron Hubbard Winter Wonderland for a 30-minute ride to the MTA Holiday Village, where children and their families will have an opportunity to visit Santa and enjoy holiday entertainment and a seven-foot piñata shaped like a Christmas tree. Series of activities planned through Dec. 24 designed to assist Hollywood merchants and residents during Red Line tunnel construction.
- WHEN: Saturday, December 10, 1994
- Santa boards trolley: Noon
Arrives at MTA Holiday Village: Appr. 12:30 p.m.
Entertainment program begins: 1 p.m.
- WHERE: Santa boards trolley at: L. Ron Hubbard Winter Wonderland, Highland Avenue and Hollywood Boulevard.
Santa arrives at: MTA Holiday Village, Hollywood Boulevard just west of Western Avenue.
- VISUALS: Santa Claus arrives by antique trolley, hands out candy to children. Entertainment to include flamenco dancers, mariachi band. Seven-foot tall piñata to be broken open by children.
- CONTACT: Greg Davy, MTA Media Relations (213) 244-7048
Media Relations Number: (213) 244-6347

#

MTA-314
santa.adv
GD:rp:12.09.94