

NEWS

June 21, 1996

MEDIA ADVISORY

- WHAT: Presentation to the public of the conceptual design for the First and Lorena Station of the Metro Red Line, East Side Extension
- WHEN: TUESDAY, JUNE 25, 1996, 4 P.M.
- WHERE: MTA HEADQUARTERS
UNION STATION ROOM, 3RD FLOOR
- SPEAKERS: Greg Villanueva, Villanueva/Arnoni-Nadel, station designer
Paul Botello, station artist
Alfonso Rodriguez, MTA Project Manager for Metro Red Line, East Side Extension
- VISUALS: Architectural drawings and models
- BACKGROUND: The First and Lorena Station will be the end station of a 3.5-mile extension of the Red Line from Union Station to East Los Angeles. When completed the line will bring a highly transit dependent population to downtown and beyond. Construction is scheduled to begin in 1997. MTA construction staff is seeking public input regarding the design of the station.
- CONTACT: Clara Potes-Fellow, MTA Media Relations,
(213) 922-2712, (213) 922-2700.

#

MTA-133