

NEWS

August 6, 1996

CONTACT: MARY ANN MASKERY/

JIM August 9, 1996

MTA MEDIA RELATIONS

(213) 922-2736/922-2700

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BIKE RACKS AT METRO GREEN LINE STATIONS ARE GOING, GOING ...

MEDIA ADVISORY

The bike racks set up at the Metro Green Line stations are already reaching capacity.

METRO GREEN LINE IS ONE YEAR OLD

At the 13 stations, but as many as 65 are filled on any given day. At least three stations report

WHAT: MTA celebrates the first birthday of the Metro Green Line with live music and clowns, and a special birthday greeting from the children of the 107 Street Elementary School.

WHEN: Monday, August 12, 8 a.m.

WHERE: Metro Green Line Imperial-Wilmington Station
Plaza Level
11651 Wilmington Ave., Los Angeles

WHO: Joseph Dawidziak, Alternate Member MTA Board of Directors
Thomas Jasmin, Acting Superintendent, Rail Operations
Kindergarten Class of 107th Street Elementary School
Music by Dutchys Tropicanas from 7:30 a.m. to 10 a.m.

WHY: Ridership on the Metro Green Line has grown 40 percent since last September, the first full month of operation, much higher than original estimates for the first year.

CONTACT: Mary Ann Maskery, MTA Media Relations (213) 922-2736
Media Relations Number: (213) 922-2700

###

MTA-166