

NEWS

October 30, 1996

MEDIA ADVISORY

MTA BUS DRIVERS TO PASS OUT HALLOWEEN CANDY TO PASSENGERS

EVENT: On Halloween day, MTA bus drivers will be distributing 500,000 pieces of individually-wrapped candy to boarding passengers. One of those bus operators will be Division 10's Rosa Fresnedo, winner of a bus driver's costume contest. She will be dressed as a clown as she passes out candy from her Halloween decorated MTA bus.

WHEN: THURSDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1996

WHERE: Time: 12:15 p.m.
meet and park in employee parking lot at:
MTA Division 10
742 N. Mission (Mission St. & Cesar Chavez Blvd.)
(round-trip transportation will be provided to Fresnedo's layover stop at Main St. & Alameda (near Phillipps))

or

Time: 12:44 p.m.
MTA bus layover zone
Main St. & Alameda (near Phillipps)

Editor's Note: Call Gary Wosk, MTA Media Relations at (213) 922-2703 for more information.

MTA-235