

NEWS

March 19, 1997

MEDIA ADVISORY

MTA AND NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF JAZZ ARTISTS OFFER FREE CONCERTS AT 6 METRO RAIL STATIONS

- WHAT: The MTA and the National Association of Jazz Artists (NAJA) are presenting free concerts at six Metro Rail stations tomorrow afternoon. The concerts will take place from 4 to 6 p.m. NAJA is dedicated to the restoration and preservation of Jazz as the authentic American art form.
- WHEN: Thursday, March 20, 4 to 6 P.M.
- WHERE: The free performances will be at the following stations:
Willow (Blue Line), 2750 W. American Avenue, Long Beach;
Imperial/Wilmington (Blue and Green Lines), 11651 Willowbrook Avenue, Los Angeles;
Norwalk (Green Line), 12901 Hoxie Avenue, Norwalk
7th and Metro (Blue and Red Lines), 660 S. Figueroa Street, Los Angeles;
Union Station (Red Line), 801 Vignes St., Los Angeles; and Wilshire/Western, (Red Line) 3775 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles.
- WHO: The following artists will appear:
Willow – Darrell Woolfolk and Friends
Imperial/Wilmington – George Griffin Trio
Norwalk – Bobby Rodriguez Quartet
7th and Metro – Jennifer York Quartet
Union Station – Paul Russo
Wilshire/Western – Bobby Hayes Quartet
- WHY: The free performances are being held to promote the NAJA conference and awards show being held in Long Beach April 2-5, and to highlight the fact that the public can travel to the events via Metro Rail.
- CONTACT: Steve Chesser, MTA Media Relations (213) 922-2718

mta-071