MTA NAMES BUS DIVISION AFTER ITS OLDEST EMPLOYEE, ARTHUR WINSTON, WHO CELEBRATES 91ST BIRTHDAY - ON THE JOB!

What: MTA celebrates the birthday of the oldest employee Arthur Winston by renaming its South Central bus operating facility after him. The Jefferson High School graduate of 1922 is still on the job - cleaning and refueling buses - after 66 years. Winston, who has missed but one day of work in more than six decades of service, has received many honors for his work ethic and longevity on the job. He leads a crew of eleven.
