

NEWS

April 9, 1997

MEDIA ADVISORY

ENVIRONMENTAL PUBLIC HEARING TO BE HELD OF METRO RED LINE'S EAST SIDE EXTENSION FROM UNION STATION TO LORENA STREET

WHAT: The MTA will hold a public hearing on a Modified Initial Study/ Environmental Assessment which evaluates the environmental impact of East Side Metro Rail Red Line Extension from Union Station to Lorena Street. The Study was mailed to over 350 federal, state and local agencies/local agencies/offices, and interested parties/ organizations. In addition, 2,500 notices of availability of the study were mailed, in English and Spanish, to interested parties, property owners and residents immediately effected by the proposed project.

WHEN: April 17th, 1997 from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m.

WHERE: Hollenbeck Middle School, 2510 East 6th St., between Soto and Mott Street.

CONTACT: Marion MacKenzie, MTA Media Relations, (213) 922-5621/922-2700

###

MTA-084