MEDIA ADVISORY

WHAT: MTA will join representatives from the City and County of Los Angeles and the Los Angeles Unified School District in a ribbon cutting ceremony to mark the opening of the 1997 Greater Los Angeles Vendor Fair.

The Vendor Fair – the largest public agency trade fair in California – will provide businesses with important information on how to get contracts with the four agencies, valued at nearly $7 billion.

Various exhibits and workshops will be featured throughout the day from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. New transit technologies featured this year will include the L.A. Rail Car, a state-of-the-art compressed natural gas bus and a look at the Advanced Technology Transit Bus.

The LAUSD will offer special workshops for businesses interested in contract opportunities with LAUSD in light of the passage of Proposition BB, the $2 billion School Bond Initiative.
