

NEWS

April 23, 1997

MEDIA ADVISORY

MTA JOINS NATIONAL OBSERVANCE AND CELEBRATES FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF "TAKING OUR DAUGHTERS TO WORK DAY"

WHAT: MTA will host a day of activities for the daughters, granddaughters, relatives and friends of Metro employees. The MTA program is designed to emphasize the positive, life-long benefits girls receive by accompanying adults to work for a day. Activities include talks by Executive Women at the Agency, Safety Training, Division and Department tours and conferences, video viewings, a continental breakfast, sack lunch and a visit to the Earthquake Preparedness Fair.

WHO: Speakers: Linda Bohlinger, MTA Interim CEO
Rae James, Executive Officer, Customer Service and Communication
Ellen Levine, Executive Officer, Transit Operations
Sharon Papa, Chief, Transit Police
Moderators: Gisselle Acevedo-Franco, Director Government Relations and Public Affairs
Marion Colston, Manager, Organizational Development

WHEN: THURSDAY, APRIL 24, 1997
7:30 A.M TO 3 P.M.

WHERE: MTA Headquarters
One Gateway Plaza
Corner Cesar Chavez and Vignes Avenue

CONTACT: Marion MacKenzie, MTA Media Relations
(213) 922-5621/922-2700

MTA -096