

NEWS

June 11, 1998

MEDIA ADVISORY

STUDENTS LEAVE IMPRINT ON PUBLIC TRANSIT; MTA DEDICATES ART WORKS AT CUSTOMER SERVICE CENTER

WHAT: MTA will dedicate art works created by students from Woodrow Wilson High School and installed at the Metro Customer Service Center in East Los Angeles. The students were commissioned to create works of art employing historic transit tokens. As part of the project, the students attended an MTA workshop on public art. Their preparation also included a tour of the Metro Rail public art projects and the customer service center where their works will be on display.

WHO: 35 students from Woodrow Wilson High School
MTA Metro Art staff members

WHEN: Friday, June 12 at 1pm

WHERE: Metro Customer Service Center
4501 "B" Whittier Blvd.
East Los Angeles
Thomas Guide: 675 F-1

Note: a second dedication of art works created by students from Annandale Elementary School in Highland Park will be held on Tuesday, June 16 at 8am at the Metro Customer Service Center located at 5301 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, Thomas Guide 633 D-2

CONTACT: Ed Scannell/Marc Littman
MTA Media Relations
(213) 922-2703/922-2700

#

MTA-072