

November 1, 2000

MEDIA ADVISORY

SPECIAL SUBWAY CONCERTS PLANNED AT HOLLYWOOD/VINE AND UNIVERSAL CITY METRO RED LINE STATIONS

WHAT: MTA joins Da Camera Society of Mount St. Mary's College in presenting two lunch-time concerts at the Hollywood/Vine and Universal City Metro Red Line subway stations. Mexico's foremost string quartet - Cuarteto Latinoamericano - will present two mini-concerts. Students from Esperanza Elementary in Westlake and Aragon Avenue Elementary in Cypress Park have been invited to attend. The Cuarteto Latinoamericano concerts will feature "Metro Chabacano," a piece written by well-known Mexican composer Javier Alvarez and first performed in Mexico City's Metro Chabacano subway station.

WHEN: Thursday, November 2, 2000
11:30 a.m. Universal City Station
12:30 p.m. Hollywood/Vine Station

WHERE: Metro Red Line Universal City Station
3901 Lankershim Blvd.
Universal City (11:30 a.m.)

-and-

Metro Red Line Hollywood/Vine Station
Hollywood (12:30 p.m.)

CONTACT: Rick Jager, MTA Media Relations, (213) 922-2707
Libby Potter, Da Camera Society, (310) 954-4302
MTA Media Relations, (213) 922-2700

MTA-114