FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Take Metro to Latino Heritage Closing Ceremony

- Two Subway Stations at Entrance of Festival

Metro Rail will be the easiest way for the public to access the "Viva Hollywood" street festival that will conclude Latino Heritage Month Sunday, Oct. 12. The Festival will run from noon to 7 p.m. on Hollywood Boulevard between Highland Avenue and Vine Street. Metro Rail has two subway stops on Hollywood Boulevard at Hollywood/Highland and Hollywood/Vine.

The highlight of the day will be appearances by Juan Gabriel, Enanitos Verdes and other Latino music artists. There also will be international cuisine, exhibit booths, arts & crafts, children's activities and more.

Take Metro to this great family event and avoid the driving and parking hassles because streets into the surrounding area will be closed all day long.

For additional information, visit www.latinoslacity.org or call (213) 978-2633. For information on Metro Buses or Metro Rail call 1 (800) COMMUTE or visit www.mta.net.
