Go Metro to Barnsdall Park to See Free Shakespeare Summer Theater

This summer the Independent Shakespeare Company will again offer Free Shakespeare in Barnsdall Park in Hollywood. Performances will be presented on an intimate open-air stage on the grounds of Barnsdall Park at 7:30 p.m. on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays. This is the third season for the series, which this year will run June 23 through Aug. 13, and it is easily (and inexpensively) reached on the Metro Red Line subway.

The season will begin with "As You Like It," one of Shakespeare's most popular comedies, and will continue with Shakespeare's complex and compelling play, "Hamlet." Barnsdall Park is at 4800 Hollywood Blvd., within convenient walking distance of the Metro Rail Sunset/Vermont station. A $3 Metro day pass is the most convenient and economical way to travel to and from the park.

For travel instructions go to www.metro.net or call 1-800-COMMUTE. For more information on performances go to www.independentshakespeare.com or call (818) 710-6306. To see or not to see? No question. Metro makes it easy.
