

June 25, 2007

Contact

Helen Gilstrap/Marc Littman

Metro Media Relations

213.922.2843/213.922.2700

metro.net/press/pressroom mediarelations@metro.net

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Go Metro to Fifth Annual Levitt Pavilion for the Performing Arts Summer Concert Series at Memorial Park in Pasadena

Metro has convenient bus and rail service for music lovers attending the free summer concert series presented by the Levitt Pavilion for the Performing Arts in Pasadena. The fifth annual concert series starts June 27 at Memorial Park, 85 E. Holly Street., within walking distance of the Metro Gold Line Memorial Park station. In addition, Metro Bus Lines, 177, 260/361, 180/181 serve the park. Go to Metro.net or call 1-800 COMMUTE for details For information on the concert series, go to info@levittpavilionpasadena.org.

A star studded line-up will feature Grammy Award-winning entertainer Luis Conte & Cuba L.A.; "First lady of the Levitt," Barbara Morrison; Wayne Vaughn, songwriter with Earth, Wind and Fire; Quetzal; Francisco Aguabella; the Millers; Bobby Matos, and other performers.

The Levitt Loves Kids Program, featuring local youth talents, continues this summer at 6:30 p.m. every Wednesday and Sunday before the Children's and Jazz Night concerts.

The concerts will be held Wednesday through Sunday from June 27 through Sept. 2 and will feature a different theme every night. Wednesday-children's Night, Thursday-World Beat, Friday-R&B Night, Saturday-Musica Latina, and Sunday-Jazz Night. The Levitt Pavilion for the Performing Arts in Pasadena has announced the opening of its fifth annual free admission summer concert series at Memorial Park adjacent to Metro's Memorial Park Gold Line station.

Metro-116