Shuttle to Hollywood Bowl is Free to Metro Riders

Back by popular demand, the Hollywood Bowl Shuttle from Metro's Hollywood/Highland Red Line Station has returned to make life, traffic and the pursuit of music easier for us all.

The Hollywood Bowl shuttle departs from the Hollywood & Highland shopping center adjacent to the station entrance every 15 minutes, starting about 2 hours before performances begin until show time. And it's free for riders showing valid Metro passes or Metro Rail tickets.

Catch the shuttle at the Orange Court just west of Hollywood & Highland on Orange Drive, between Hollywood Boulevard and Franklin Avenue. Passengers will be dropped off near the Bowl box office. To return, board at the Bowl bus loading area. Shuttles depart to return to the Orange Court for 25 minutes after the show concludes.

For more information on the shuttle and the Hollywood Bowl programs, call 323-850-2000, or visit hollywoodbowl.com. To plan the best route to the Hollywood/Highland Station, call 1-800-COMMUTE, or use the Trip Planner at metro.net.
