Go Metro to the Mariachi Festival at Mariachi Plaza

Go Metro to the 18th Annual Mariachi Festival to be held Sunday, November 23, at the Mariachi Plaza in Boyle Heights and celebrate “Mariachi Estrellas del Futuro” featuring José Hernandez and his Mariachi Sol de Mexico.

Metro Bus lines 30 and 31 serve Mariachi Plaza, a 40-year old landmark where mariachi musicians gather at First Street and Boyle Avenue.

The free festival is from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and will feature local and international performers throughout the day. There also will be children’s art activities, local artisans and food booths.

The festival is sponsored by the City of Los Angeles, Council District 14, Mothers of East Los Angeles, Barrio Planners Inc., the Boyle Heights Chamber of Commerce, Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority (Metro) and the Community Redevelopment Agency.

For information on routes and schedules, use the Metro Trip Planner at www.metro.net or call 1-800-COMMUTE.
