Additional New Year's Eve Train Trips Added Between Midnight and 1 a.m.

The Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority (Metro) will offer free service on all Metro-operated bus and rail lines on New Year's Eve to help everyone travel safely during the holidays

Free New Year's Eve rides are an annual Metro tradition designed to give Angelenos more transportation options to reach holiday destinations safely while avoiding holiday gridlock, parking costs, and hassles.

On New Year's Eve, Saturday, Dec. 31, 2022, no fares will be collected starting at 9 p.m. through Sunday, January 1, 2023, at 2 a.m.

The fare gates at all Metro Rail stations will be unlatched, and fare boxes and validators will not deduct fare from TAP cards and fare media.

Metro rail trains will be added departing all terminal stations between midnight and 1 a.m. to accommodate those riders attending New Year's Eve celebrations. Trains will run approximately every 20 minutes after 8 p.m. Metro trains and buses will run on a Sunday/Holiday schedule on Jan. 1 & 2
