Transformative, Equity-focused plan seeks to improve air quality, enhance safety, invest in economic vitality of communities

The Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority (Metro) and the California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) are hosting a series of meetings to update communities along the I-710 corridor on the draft Long Beach-East L.A. Corridor Mobility Investment Plan. The investment plan outlines recommended projects and funding strategies to improve mobility, safety and cleaner air along the corridor, comprised of 18 cities and unincorporated communities from Long Beach to East L.A.

Since 2021, Metro and Caltrans have partnered with residents, environmental justice organizations, educators, public health advocates, unions, businesses and elected officials along the I-710 corridor to create a task force to identify multimodal strategies to improve the quality of life in the corridor, and now are sharing the investment plan.

Comments on the draft investment plan will be accepted until Friday, March 1, 2024. Comments can be submitted by calling 213.922. 4710 or by emailing 710corridor@metro.net. Information about the draft plan can be found at metro.net/lb-ela-corridor-plan.

Additionally, Metro and Caltrans are hosting community meetings to gather public input and feedback and offer project updates. In-person sessions are scheduled for Feb. 1, 7, 12 and 21 and virtual meetings and remote viewing sessions are scheduled for Feb. 1, 3, 5 and 13. Participants will learn more about the recommended projects, which include enhancing zero-emission truck infrastructure, streamlining goods movement and freight, improving arterial roadways, creating new jobs, community programming, upgrading transit access and services, taking a community needs approach to prioritize projects, amongst other multimodal transportation projects that help to reconnect communities divided by I-710.
