Arthur Winston Memorial Service

Family, friends and coworkers will attend the memorial service this Friday for our longtime friend and Metro legend Arthur Winston, who died last week at age 100 following a short illness. Viewings, which began today, will continue on Thursday from noon until 6 p.m. at Harrison and Ross Mortuaries, 4601 South Crenshaw Blvd., Los Angeles (323-584-1230).

The memorial service will begin at 11 a.m., Friday, April 21, at the Faithful Central Bible Church Tabernacle, 321 North Eucalyptus Ave., Inglewood (310-412-0372). The family has requested that those attending the funeral wear white, cream, beige or light color clothing, if possible. Burial will follow the memorial service at Inglewood Park Cemetery, 720 East Florence Ave., at North Prairie. The repast will be held at Prince Hall Grand Lodge, 9027 S. Figueroa St., Los Angeles (323-242-2393).

Regional Transportation CEO's Committee Meeting Agenda

I will be attending the monthly meeting of the Regional Transportation CEO's Committee this Friday. There are three freight related issues on the agenda, including a cooperative effort on regional freight issues among County Transportation Commissions, a multi-county goods movement action plan update and a report on the status of the regional, state and federal MOU on Southern California freight movement. Other agenda items include the MTC 511 Center, Metrolink weekend service and the Metrolink sealed corridor projects, which uses appropriate safety measures to reduce accidents at grade crossings and elsewhere along the corridor.
