MGL Eastside Access Project Begins at Mariachi Plaza Station

Today, Metro Deputy CEO Paul Taylor joined Los Angeles Councilmember and Metro Director José Huizar and other city officials for the groundbreaking ceremony of the Metro Gold Line (MGL) Eastside Access Project. The event, held at the Mariachi Plaza Station, marked the beginning of the $30 million project to make improvements for better access to all eight Eastside stations from Little Tokyo to East Los Angeles through Boyle Heights. Funding is provided by Measure R. Completion of the project is expected by 2019. Channels 2/9, 7, 34, Downtown News and Los Angeles Independent covered the event. Stories are expected to run today and tomorrow.
