DATE: August 14, 1997

TO: MTA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

FROM: GISSELLE ACEVEDO-FRANCO

- At a luncheon today, Senator Richard Polanco's Associate Consultant Bill Mabie stated that amendments to SB 567 are being developed to provide for the following configuration of the MTA Board of Directors:
  - Three (3) public representatives selected by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors;
  - Three (3) public representatives selected by the Mayor of the City; and,
  - Three (3) elected official representatives selected by the Los Angeles County City Selection Committee.

Senator Polanco's Sacramento staff confirms these are the provisions being considered. At this point in time, the amendments are still being drafted by Legislative Counsel. It is uncertain whether the amendments will be made public prior to the August 27, hearing on SB 567 in the Assembly Committee on Appropriations. Please note that the August 27, meeting of the Assembly Committee on Appropriations begins at 8:30 a.m.
