

Contact List

Metro as a Catalyst for Economic Development

Transportation is a catalyst for economic development, LA County residents approved the Measure M initiative that will invest over $120 billion within the next 40 years in transportation infrastructure. Metro's Women and Girls Governing Council is committed to assessing policies and programs that will guide the investment towards equitable economic growth and provide access to transportation careers and contracting opportunities for women-owned businesses.

Name	Title	Email Address
Julia Brown	Manager, Community Relations	BrownJu@metro.net
Leticia Solis	Director, Wayside Systems	SolisLe@metro.net
Audrey Bolden	Equipment Records Specialist	BoldenA@metro.net
Bonnie Bradford	Transit Operations Supervisor	BradfordB@metro.net
Cecilia Cabrinha	Equipment Maintenance Supervisor	CabrinhaCe@metro.net
Charlene Nelson	Transit Security Officer II	NelsonC@metro.net
Chere Craig	Collision Investigations Specialist	CraigC@metro.net
Deanna Phillips	Administrative Analyst	PhillipsDe@metro.net
Ingrid Martinez	Transit Operations Supervisor	MartinezI@metro.net
Jacqueline Santiago	CCTV Observer	SantiagoJa@metro.net
Karla Aleman	Director, Transportation Operations	ALEMANK@metro.net
Ann Arriola	Stock Clerk	ARRIOLAA@metro.net
Mary Morgan	DEO, Finance	MorganM@metro.net
Mattie Jones	Stop & Zones Supervisor	JONESM@metro.net
Miriam Long	Director, Diversity & Economic Opportunity	LongM@metro.net
Narendra Desai	Equipment Maintenance Supervisor	DesaiN@metro.net
Sasha Alvarenga	Transit Operations Supervisor	ALVARENGAS@metro.net
Shaniqua Jones	Bus Operator	djones_shaniqua@outlook.com
Tamika Batiste	Transit Operations Supervisor	BATISTET@metro.net
Valerie Campbell	Equipment Records Specialist	CAMPBELLV@metro.net

Legend

 Section Leader