

Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti Announces Great Streets Initiative

BY MARIE SULLIVAN , OCTOBER 10, 2013

At the Urban Land Institute's Transit Oriented Los Angeles Summit on October 10, 2013, Mayor Eric Garcetti announced his first initiative as Mayor: The Great Streets Initiative.

It was during this speech that I realized, the Mayor is a straight-up Planner! Great news in my book. Enjoy (most of) the speech here. Technical imperfections lost a couple minutes but you'll get the idea. Introduced by David Waite, Chair of ULI LA.

Related

Urban Lands Institute to hold "Art of Go" event on Nov. 12

Below is the news release from the Urban Land Institute -- Metro Deputy CEO Lindy Lee will be giving the opening keynote speech and the event features L.A. Mayor and Metro Board Member Eric Garcetti.

November 5, 2014
In "Policy & Funding"

 Mayor-Elect Eric Garcetti to join Metro Board of Directors on July 1

Mayor-Elect Eric Garcetti to join Metro Board of Directors on July 1
May 22, 2013
In "Transportation News"

Fresh pics: Mayor Garcetti tours Regional Connector's underground Little Tokyo/Arts District Station
August 31, 2017

📁 CATEGORIES: Transportation News \(//thesource.metro.net/category/transportation-news/\)

 2 replies >

[...] Watch Garcetti Introduce the “Great Streets” Program (YouTube via The Source)

[...]

[...] directive – the Great Streets Initiative. As Marie Sullivan at Metro’s The Source writes, “It was during this speech that I realized, the Mayor is a straight-up Planner!”

[...]