

NEWS

MEDIA ADVISORY

February 22, 1995

MURAL BY ARTIST TERRY SCHOONHOVEN TO BE DEDICATED AT CAL STATE UNIVERSITY -- LOS ANGELES METROLINK STATION

WHAT: A mural entitled "The Muralists" by artist Terry Schoonhoven, reflecting the theme of freedom of expression, will be officially dedicated at the Cal State University -- Los Angeles Metrolink station. Several CSULA art students and students from other area colleges also contributed to the work, which was created as part of MTA's Art for Rail Transit (A-R-T) program.

A large dedication plaque, donated by Edwards Cinemas, also will be unveiled as part of the ceremony.

WHEN: Thursday, February 23, 1995
9 a.m.

WHERE: CSULA Metrolink Station platform
California State University -- Los Angeles
5151 State University Drive
Los Angeles (1994 Thomas Bros. Guide page 635, block F-2)

ATTENDEES: John Fasana, Duarte City Councilman and MTA Board member, master of ceremonies
Richard Alatorre, L.A. Councilman and MTA Board member
Boyd Condi, Mayor, City of Alhambra
Rita Valenzuela, Mayor Pro Tem, City of Monterey Park
Dr. George D. Taylor, Vice President/Student Affairs, CSULA
Dr. Barbara Boyer, Chair, CSULA Art Department
Dr. Carl Selkin, Acting Dean, CSULA School of Arts and Letters
James Edwards Sr., Chairman and CEO, Edwards Cinemas

CONTACT: Greg Davy, MTA Media Relations (213) 244-7048
Media Relations Number: (213) 244-6347

#

MTA-051
CSULA.adv
GD:rp:02.22.95