FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Start your transportation career as a Metro bus operator

L.A. Metro to Hold Bus Operator One-Day Hiring Event April 7

Metro is hiring! If you are 21 years old or older and interested in becoming a Metro bus operator, attend our one-day hiring event on Saturday, April 7. There are more than 200 bus operator positions available, and staff will be conducting on-the-spot testing, interviews, agility testing and background checks.

The hiring event will take place from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Metro's Central Maintenance Facility, Building #2. The address is 490 Bauchet Street, Los Angeles, CA, 90012. Free parking will be available on site.

Participants should bring their driver's license, ten-year (H6) driving record dated within 30 days from their local DMV office, and a professional resume. Wear business casual attire with closed-toe shoes. The hiring process may take three to five hours; plan to stay for the entire duration of the event.

Metro offers competitive hourly rates and great benefits, including health insurance, tuition reimbursements, retirement plan options and more.
