

Look, Listen, Stay Alive

Metro Rail Safety Education And Outreach Program

Metro Rail System

Facts At A Glance

- Blue Line Opened 1990
- Average Weekday Boardings 62,730
- Average Weekend Boardings 41,253
- Length of Route - Miles/# of Stations 22

Facts At a Glance

- LASD under contract with MTA provides Metro Rail security
- Approximate travel time from Los Angeles to Long Beach - 45min - 60 min
- 86 Street Grade Crossings
- Blue Line trains run adjacent to streets in Los Angeles and Long Beach

Metro

Obey Signals, Crossing Arms Train And Traffic Lights

Metro

Warning Signals

Warning Signs

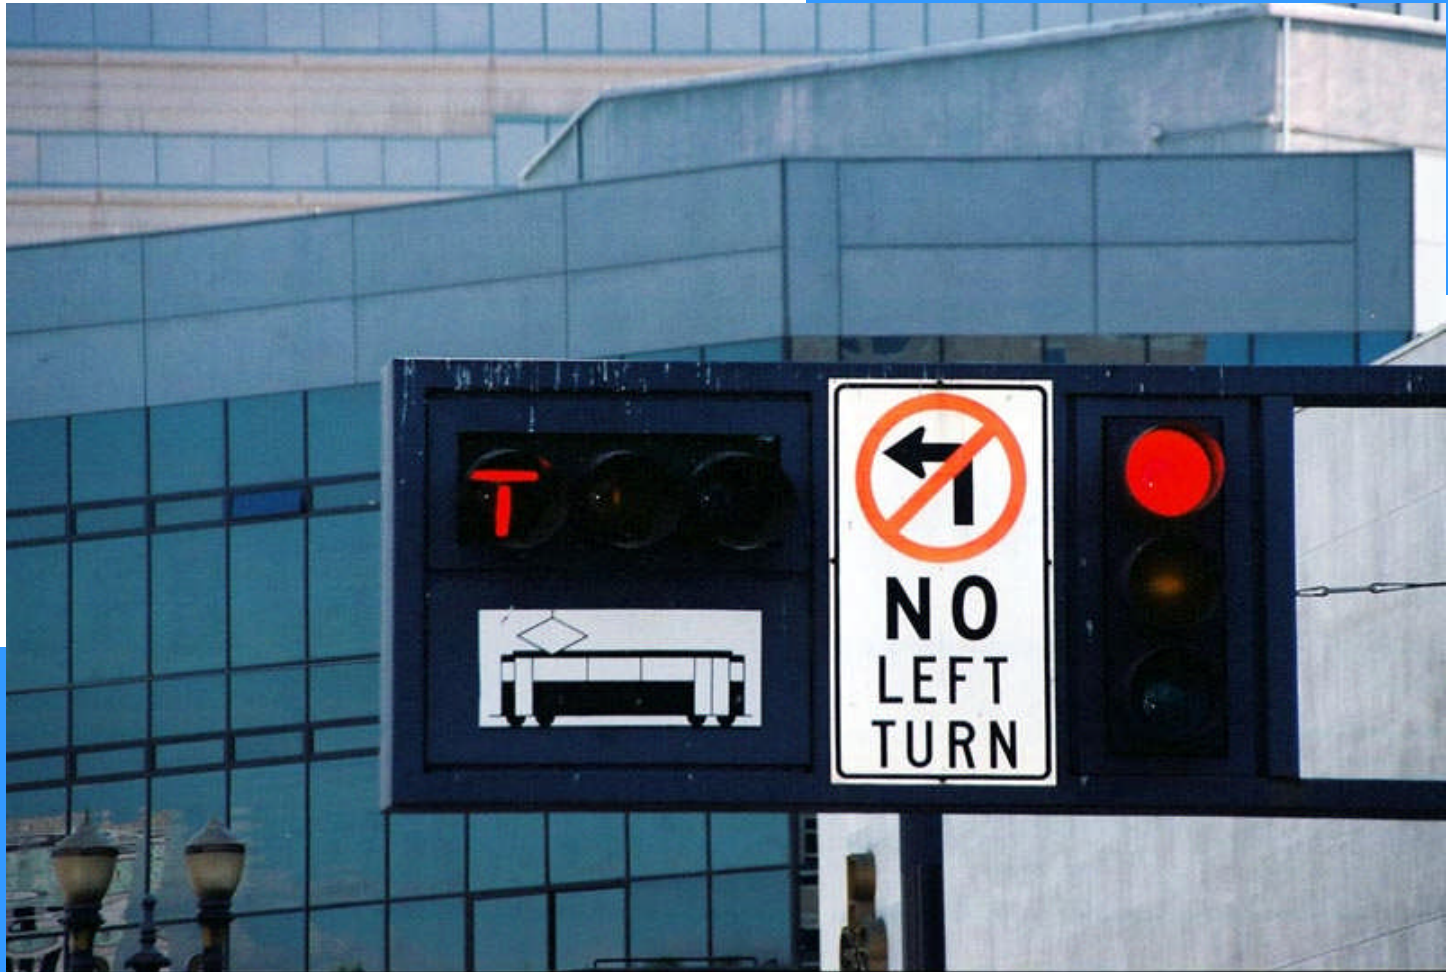

Crossing Arms

Metro

Traffic Lights

Metro

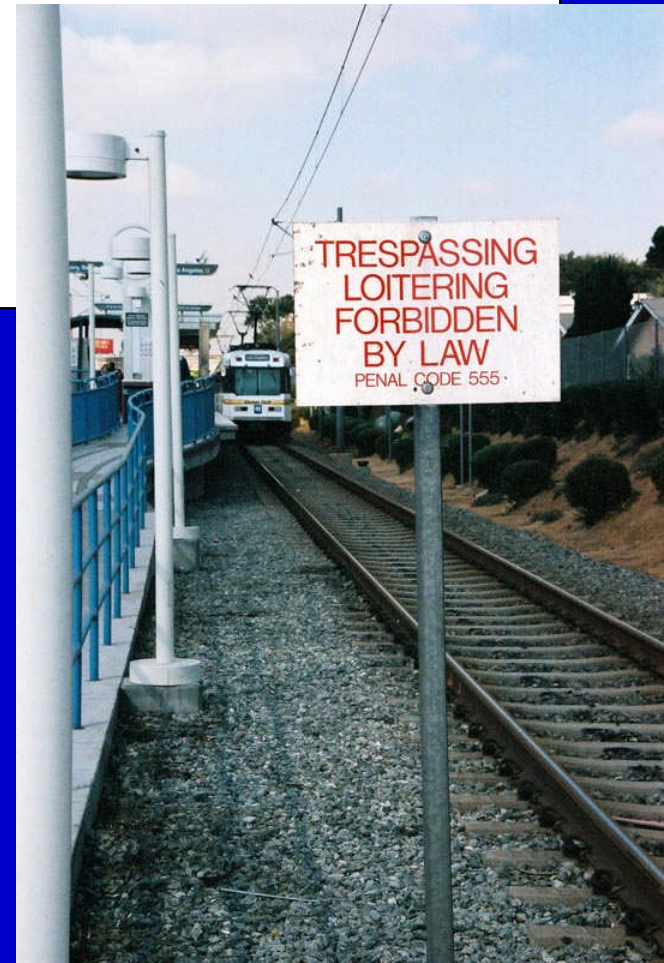

Pedestrian Safety

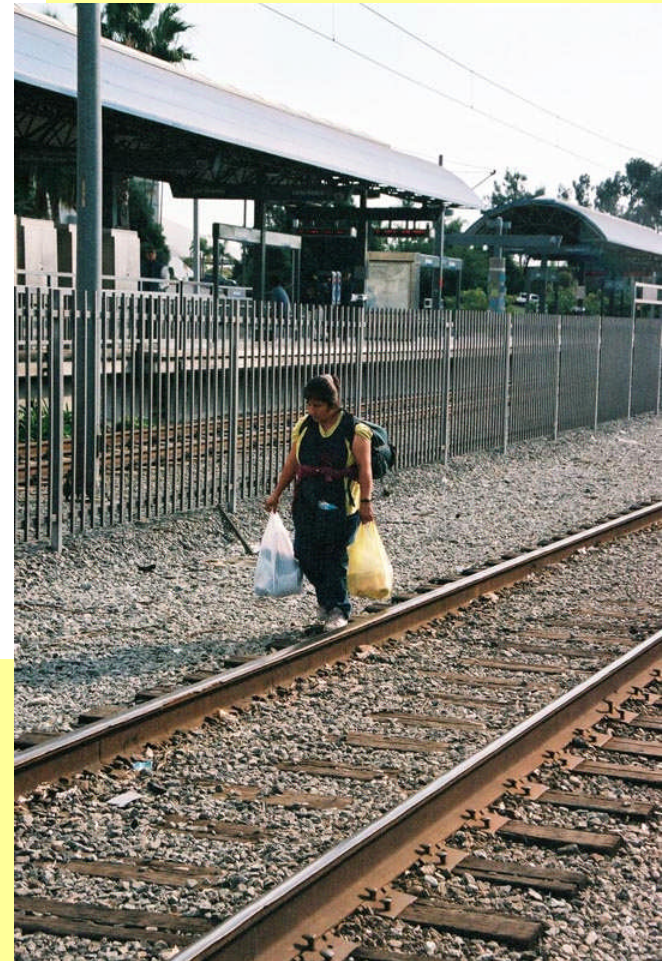

Metro

Trespassing = $500 Fine Illegal - Dangerous

Playing Near Tracks And Taking Short Cuts Can Kill

Watch For More Than One Track

Watch For More Than One Train

Metro

Look And Listen For The Train

Listen For Trains Remove Headphones

If The Gates Are Down A Train IS Coming

If You Drop It On The Tracks – Don't Go Back

Train Tunnels And Bridge Safety

Metro

There Are No Sidewalks

Never walk on Bridges

Metro

Graffiti Can Kill - Never Hang On Bridges

Passenger Safety

Metro

Always Obey Signals

Metro

Never Stop On The Tracks

Never Turn Left Against A “Red” Arrow

Never Go Around Gates

It Takes 45 Seconds For Trains to Pass

Always Watch For Two Trains

Never Try To Beat The Train The Train Always Wins

Train Passenger Safety

Metro

Never Run To Catch The Train Trains Arrive Every 8 To 10 Minutes

Push Pedestrian Button To Cross Tracks

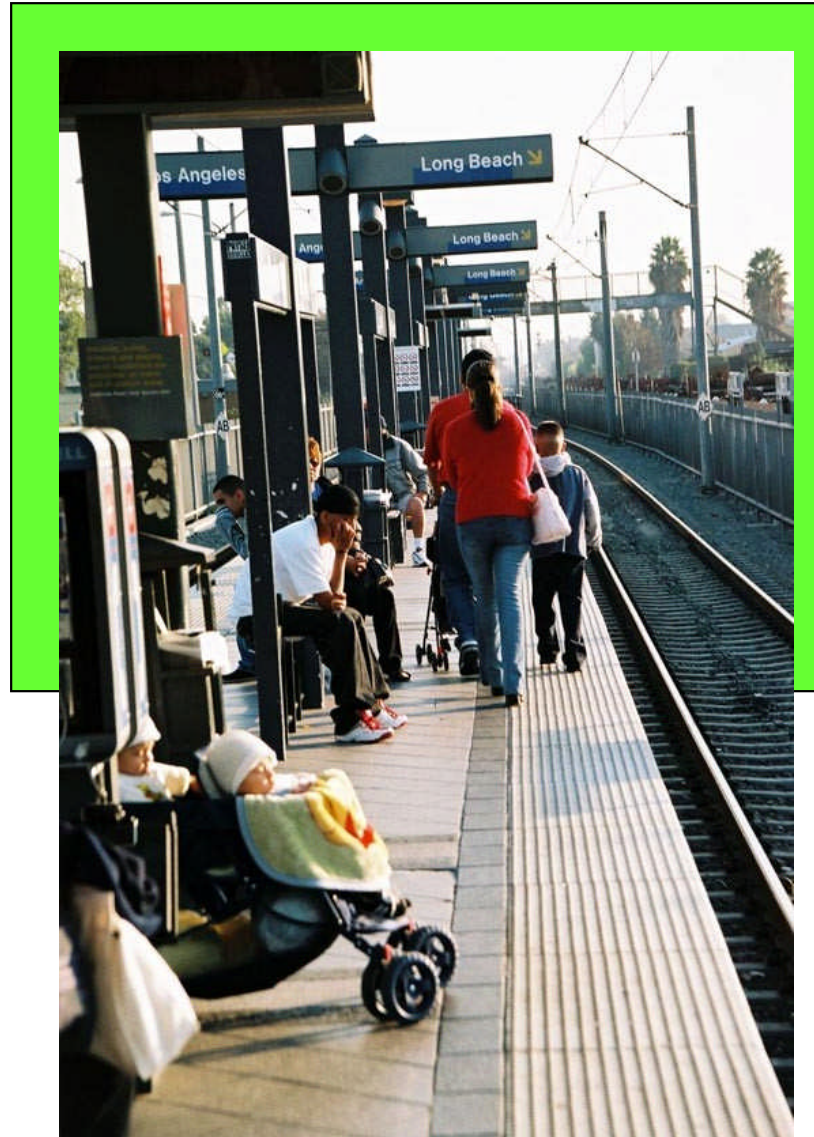

Never Go Between Cars

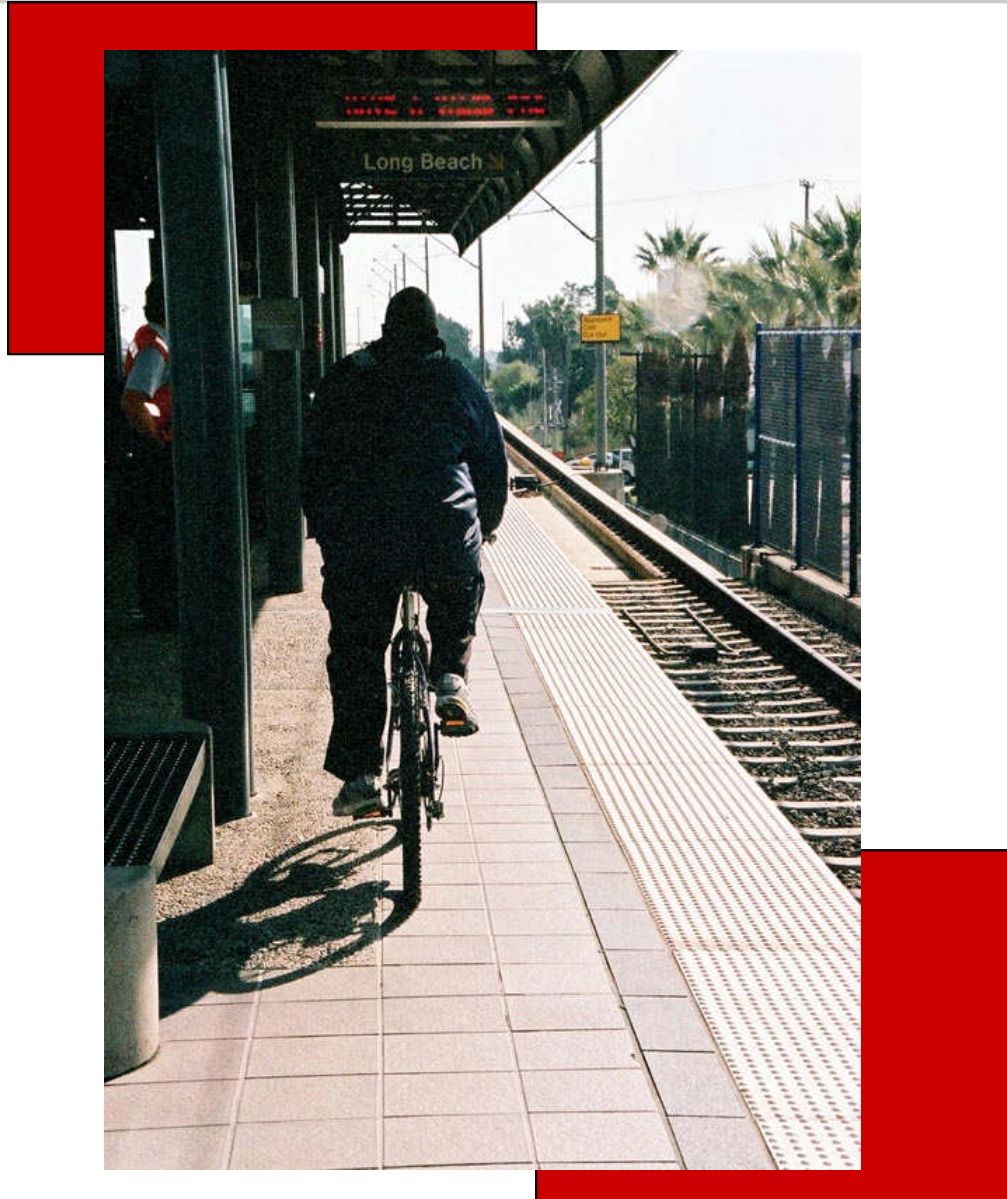

Hold On To Children When Boarding

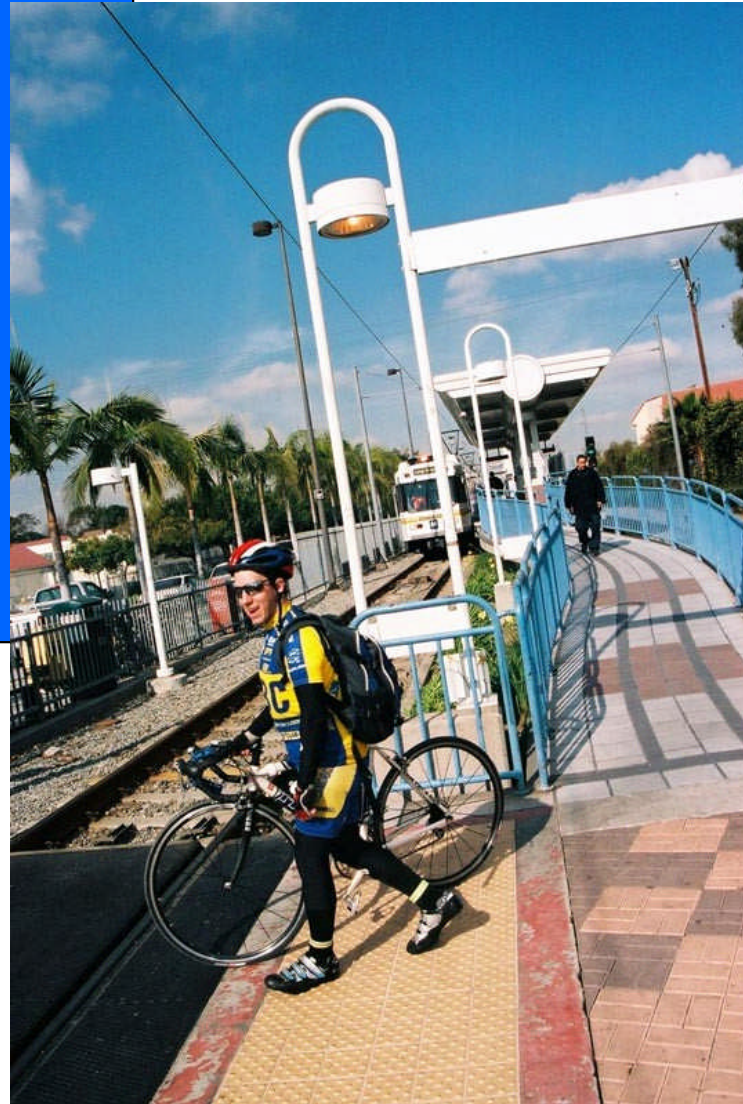

Stay Away From Platform Edges

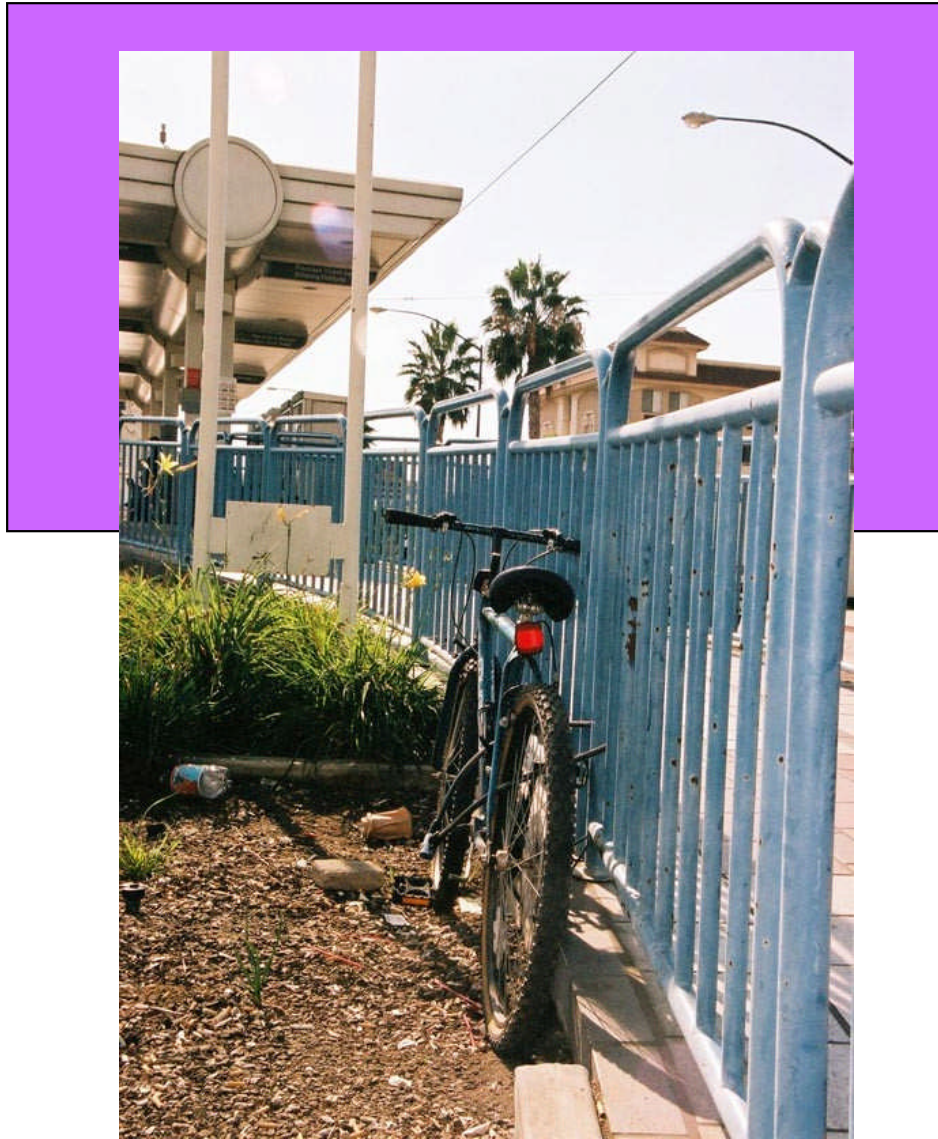

Never Ride Bicycles On Platforms

Walk Bicycles Across Tracks When Leaving Stations

Never Leave Bicycles Unattended

Observe All Signs When Riding Trains

Dramatization Of Real Life Incidents That Resulted From Unsafe Or Unlawful Behavior
Around Railroad Tracks And Railroad Crossings